Your Majesty,

I have today received your most generous gift of a donation to the Army Air Corps Fund. I speak on behalf of the whole Army Air Corps in thanking you most sincerely for a gesture of the utmost generosity.

I know that General Farndale has already written to you but may I say again what an honour it was for all of us that you should be present at our 25th anniversary air display.

I would like you to know that your generosity will benefit not only the Museum of Army Flying Appeal, launched in this our Silver Jubilee year, but also the families of those who have lost their lives while serving in Army flying.

Finally, may I say how honoured we would be if on some future visit to England, you were interested in seeing a little more of Middle Wallop and Army flying, perhaps in a rather less formal atmosphere. We would, of course, be pleased to demonstrate to you the capabilities of our latest equipment and in particular the Lynx/TOW helicopter weapons system.

I hope very much that you enjoyed your day with us at Middle Wallop in July and may I again thank you sincerely for your most generous support of the charitable causes which mean so much to us.

*I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your Majesty's Obedient Servant*
